GOVERNMENT’S ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO FILE A CONSOLIDATED
RESPONSE PARTLY UNDER SEAL TO DEFENDANTS’ MOTIONS TO SUPPRESS THE WIRETAP AND TO FILE AN OVERSIZED BRIEF

On April 1, 2020, Defendants Zangrillo, Colburn, Wilson, Kimmel, Palatella, Chen and McGlashan filed two motions to suppress the Court-authorized wiretap. See Dkts. 1015 and 1024. The defendants’ briefs totaled approximately 44 pages. The government intends to file a consolidated response addressing both motions. Due to the number of arguments raised in the two motions, the government seeks permission to file a single brief of not more than 35 pages.

In addition, the government moves for leave to file its response partially under seal. As grounds for the motion, the government notes that certain portions of the motion require redaction under the Protective Order in this case. The government will file a redacted copy of the response on the docket and provide the Court with an unredacted copy under seal. The defendants assent to both of the government’s requests.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW E. LELLING
United States Attorney
